Elder and Pastoral Candidate Observations

2018-19

You must observe each of the below ministries as one of the requirements to fulfill for elder blessing or pastoral ordination eligibility in May 2019.

Specifics:

- Please contact the ministry heads below to arrange for your observations.
- You will record each observation on the attached log, have the supervisor sign off on the observation, and write a reflection about it as specified.
- Type your observation sheet. You may download it from the ANLI website.
- Answer the question in four to six sentences. Your response must present a thoughtful and critical analysis of what you observed.
 - Elder candidates will answer the question, how did the observed ministry serve and restore constituents?
 - Pastoral candidates will answer the question, what evidence did you see in the observed ministry of serving and supporting diversity?
- Observe half the ministries by December 1 and submit the typed log to Dr. Jan Paron by December 15. You may place the completed logs in an envelope on Pastor Debbie Strek's door.
- Observe the second half of the ministries by March 1 and submit the typed log to Dr. Jan Paron by March 15.
