

Redemption: Old Testament
Session 5
Spring 2021
Pastor Phil Bradley

an everlasting
COVENANT

Jeremiah 32:40

“The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge” (Prov 1:7).

“I am thy servant; give me understanding, that I may know thy testimonies” (Ps 119:125).

Key Scripture (1 Pet 1:20-21 KJV)

Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you, ²¹ Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God.

Instructional OverviewSession 5: Topics

- Davidic Covenant
- Prophecy of the First and Second Comings of Jesus

Lesson Big Ideas

- God made a covenant with David that his “throne shall be established forever.” It is through David’s genealogy that the Messiah (Jesus) was born.
- In the Old Testament, one finds many prophecies about the first and second comings of Jesus. The first coming prophecies have all come true, which makes us know we can trust those of the second.

Essential Questions

- What is the Davidic covenant and why is it important in redemptive history?
- Why it is important to identify Old Testament prophecy about the first and second comings of Jesus?

Lesson Outcomes

- Identify and explain some of the Old Testament prophecies of Jesus through small and whole group discussions.

Scripture Group Analysis

Directions

- 1. Carefully read 1 Pet 1:20-21.
- 2. Working in assigned groups, students will discuss the meaning of the verses.
- 3. Instructor will choose one person in each group to debrief.
