Session 1: Sealed

The
FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT

GALATIANS 5:22-23

Key Scripture

“having believed, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise”
(Eph 1:13c NKJV).

Instructional Overview (7-7:15pm)

Big Ideas

- God seals us with the infilling of His spirit—with speaking in tongues as the initial evidence of covenant—as His purchased possession (Acts 10:44-48; 19:1-6; Eph 1:13).
- The Holy Spirit manifests the fruit of the Spirit in your life (Acts 2).

Essential Questions

- What is the relationship between the infilling of the Holy Spirit and the power that fuels one’s spiritual walk?
- Why does abiding in Christ affect the fruit one produces?

Learning Outcomes

- Analyzes the concept of new birth and abiding in Christ for self application citing at least one claim with proof
- Examines each characteristic of the fruit of the Spirit and determines at least one right attitude and one right practice
- Defines a word in the context of a passage based on the Greek transliteration, Strong’s number, Thayer’s definition, and meaning from the verse/chapter
- Distinguishes differences in word meaning based on the Greek transliteration, Strong’s number, Thayer’s definition, and meaning from verse/chapter

Lecture: New Birth and the Fruit of the Spirit (7:15-7:45pm)

1. All things become new =
 - Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ +
[(What must I do) Acts 16:30-31]
 - Repent for the remission of Sins +
[(What must I do) Acts 2:38; (Die) Rom 6:2-3]
 - Water baptism in the Name of Jesus +
[(What must I do) Acts 2:38; 8:16; 19:5; (Buried) Rom 6:3-4]
 - Baptism in the Holy Ghost +
[(What must I do) Acts 2:38; (Rise again) John 3:5; Rom 6:4; 8:2 (Initial sign with speaking in tongues) Acts 2:4; 10:46; 19:6; Impartation of Christ's righteousness (Rom 8:4; 9:1)]
2. When the Lord baptizes you with His spirit, you have power that fuels your walk (Acts 1:8)
3. A new walk with power brings a new character in Christ; and then, the Holy Spirit manifests the fruit of His spirit (Gal 5:22-23)

Quick Think: Individual Reflection

“having believed, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise” (Eph 1:13c NKJV).

Directions:

- Sealed indicates those who are God’s by the gift of His spirit (Thayer, 2009. p. 609). The Holy Spirit is our seal (Eph 1:13-14; 2 Tim 2:19).
- Think about, and then write what Eph 1:13 means to you. Debrief.

Meaning of Sealed

Activity 3

Group (8:10-9pm)

Directions: Work together with the teacher to complete the below word study.

To determine the contextual meaning for a final dictionary entry you have to go beyond the lexicon definition. Remember to look at the book intent, chapter meaning, and passage information. Then, exegete behind and within the text: look at the cultural, political, geographical, etc. occurrences of meaning behind the text and rhetorical structure within the text.

Paul wrote verses 11 to 14 in first-person plural, which indicates that God inclusively seals multiple people (the bride) through His Spirit. Paul included himself in the statement and his brethren meaning both Jews and Gentiles (Kinsey, 2009, Bride's Pearl, ch. 1).• People of antiquity viewed a wax seal as a mark of ownership stamped on it, "identifying who was attesting to what was inside the container that been sealed" (Keener, Bible Background Commentary: New Testament, 542). Within the Text The world within the text examines the literary elements of Scripture like modifiers, genre, parts of speech, sentence components, phrases, verses surrounding it. The heavenly location gives possession.• The seal provides part of the bride's riches in Christ through the New Covenant completing the Old in Jesus Christ (v.2).• Thus, the seal reveals the knowledge of His purpose and will to the Church (Eph 1:11).• The riches include the inheritance of redemption as Christ's purchased possession (v. 3) through relationship with Jesus fixed through the foundation of the earth (v. 5).• The sealing in verse 13 ties to the purpose from verse 4, "we should be holy and without blame before him in love." The sealing of Holy Spirit subsequently equips the church with all rights to travel down the holiness pathway.• The sealing from the infilling of the Holy Ghost also affords the church sonship through adoption (Eph 1:5; 2 Cor 5:17). The adoption cancels the old identity and changes it to a new by His choice (Eph 1:5b; 4:22-24) and the riches of His grace (1:7b).• The seal of promise from the Holy Spirit then looses the word of truth and gospel of salvation (v. 13).
