

Old Testament
Session 6
Spring 2022
Pastor Phil Bradley

an everlasting covenant

Jeremiah 32:40

“The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge” (Prov 1:7).

“I am thy servant; give me understanding, that I may know thy testimonies” (Ps 119:125).

(Rev 22:20 KJV)

“He which testifieth these things saith, Surely, I come quickly. Amen.
Even so, come, Lord Jesus.”

Instructional Overview

Session 6: Topics

- New Covenant
- Prophecy in the Old Testament

Lesson Big Ideas

- God revealed a new covenant with Israel to take place in the future (Jer 31:31-34). Not only did this covenant affect Israel, but also the Gentile believers who had been grafted (Rom 11:17). This covenant remains crucial to redemptive history.
- The Old Testament contains much prophecy; some have already come to pass, while others have yet to come.
- Old Testament prophecy communicates, that in the end, God will be victorious.

Essential Questions

- What is the New Covenant's important to Jews and Gentiles?
- How does studying prophecy (especially the material in this lesson) show God as all-knowing and in control?

Lesson Outcomes

- Analyze and describe prophetic events covered in class through whole-class discussions and group activities.

Scripture Talk

Directions

1. Carefully read Rev 22:20
2. Work in groups as assigned. Write down your thoughts about the verse.
3. Groups will report out.
